

ConChip - The Electronic Cabinet Lock

What is it ?

An electronic, non contact furniture lock that opens and closes using an electronic chip key.

How does it work ?

An alarm sounds when a door or a drawer is opened without using the electronic chip key and a reminder tone sounds when door is left open.

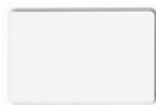

Features and Benefits

- RFID Technology
- Lock works through up to 25mm of non-conducting material
- Simple to program - no need for software or PC
- Easy to install, no locksmith required
- Use as supplementary security to existing RFID systems
- Extremely robust through impact-resistant motor function
- Minimum of 30,000 latch openings per battery (wireless)
- Programmable for up to 50 different keys
- Suitable for many different applications
- Lock glass cabinets without glass drilling

Chip Key

Key Card

Chip Key with Wristband

RFID Technology

Keyless System

Invisible Lock

Use on cupboards, cabinets & lockers

Applications of ConChip Electronic Lock

Shops and Retail:

Glass cabinets, showcases and display cases, supply cupboards and staff lockers.

Homes and Offices:

Filling cabinets, kitchen and stationery cupboards, bathroom cabinets, liquor cabinets and child-proof cupboards.

Bars and Clubs:

Staff and visitor lockers, equipment and storage cupboards, glass display cabinets.

Hospitals:

Storage cabinets, cupboards and lockers for medical equipment or private belongings.

Schools and Universities:

Staff and student lockers, equipment and storage cupboards.

Sport and Fitness Centres:

Staff and visitor lockers, equipment and storage cupboards.

